

The Good Shepherd

Words by Milton Loyer, adapted from Psalm 23

Milton Loyer / arr Aiden Brown

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. The Lord is my good shepherd; I shall not be in need.
2. Though I may walk through valleys of danger and of strife.
3. He sets for me a table before my angry foes.

6

He leads me to the pastures, where I may safely feed.
I fear not any evil, for He will guard my life.
And with the oil of gladness, my heart now overflows.

11

He leads me by still waters, so I a drink may take.
His shepherd's staff will guide me, and comfort to me bring.
Sure - ly good - ness and mer - cy shall fol - low af - ter me.

16

In paths of righteous living for His good name's sake.
And of His loving kindness, I'll for ever sing.
I'll dwell with - in His pres - ence for e - ter - ni - ty.